MESSERVY THREE-YEAR-OLD WINS DERBY PRELIMINARY AT CHARLESTON.

Gelding's Chances of Winning Palmetto Derby Well Thought Of as Result of Race-Mud Runners Get Another Chance.

Charleston, S. C., February 20.—Today's races at Palmetto Park were run over a sloppy track and conditions just suited the mud runners. Two handicaps were offered as features, one the Pee Dee Handicap, a dash of five and a half furlongs, and the other the Derby Preliminary Handicap, for three-year-olds, one mile. Ancon, which has come to be rated as one of the best and most consistent sprinters racing here, accounted for the former, the Derby Preliminary in J. W. Messerry's Charlestonian, a colt that had been racing disappointingly in several of his previous efforts here. In today's race Charlestonian was ridden by R. Goose, was rated behind the fast early pace set by Deposit and in the final furlong easily disposing of his opposition won going away. On today's showing Charlestonian's chances of landing the big race of next week took good, provided the Carman stable does not send Surprising to the post.

Big Rock, which had been a supposed "good when he beat an ordinary lot in the second. J. Todd took a purse with Discovery, which won the fifth race, while Fiel, running in the same interests, finished second to Milton B. in the closing dash. The latter made a runaway affair of his race. Dr. McCarthy placed a brace on the old plater's ankle hot opposed to him an easy thing.

Jocke: Borel was to have ridden Old Ben in the Derby Preliminary, but was taken sick and Pickett was substituted.

J. O. Talbott, who is racing a pretentious stable here this winter, is expected to arrive in a few days to map out plans for the coming season. The sprinter Palanquin has been thrown out of training. ACCEPTANCES FOR ENGLISH HANDICAPS.

The acceptances all round for the Spring Handicaps can only be regarded as splendid. From the Lincolashite ten retired, Liverpool Cup seven, Queen's Prize ten. Great Metropolitan twelve, City and Subarban seven. Jubilee Handicap eight, and Grand National seventeen. As regards the first big race of the season Long Set's owner is apparently satisfied with 131 pounds, but Light Brigade's 119 pounds has been considered too heavy a burden. A like remark applies to Young Pegasus, which was allotted 107 pounds, while Sun Yat, Radiant, Lord Annandale, Cheerful, Moscato, Dunholm, Ormachus, and St. Gall have also retired. Sir Martin, which won the Ellesmere Handicap, Manchester November, under 140 pounds, appears one of the pick of the handicap with 112 pounds. Balscadden, Lorenzo, and Light Brigade bold their places at the head of the Liverpool Cup, in which Harry of Hereford, with 99 pounds, is the sort of horse to create a surprise. Balmatian, Young Pegasus, Blue Stone, Balblair, Dutch Lady, Solomon's Mine, and Orebi are the maleoutents. Sailaway, which defeated a useful field for the Ayrshire Handicap last September, has bottom weight, Spounds. There is nothing very surprising about the seventeen withdrawals from the Grand National. A few of them may be useful over fences in moderate company, but they could have no pretensions to winning over the Liverpool jumps. Sir C. Assheton-Smith appears content with Covertecat's 175 pounds, and Mr. James Hennessy with one bound less for the hero of five years ago; in fact, all the top-weights are satisfied, the highest impost of those who have gone out being 156 pounds. Lord Derby's Axle Pin, with 144 pounds, 14 pounds less than when the gelding refused in 1913, is looked upon as a very likely candidate for prominent honors. Whitaker also having under his charge his Majesty's Twelfth Lancer, Rory O'Moore, Lord Derby's Carrigrue, Lord Rivers, Great Horson, and Hugomart. The top-weights did not accept for the Queen's Prize and Great Metropolitan; consequently the imposts have bee

ENGLISH AND AUSTRALIAN HORSES.

The Idea of English horses being no good for racing in Australia and Australians no good in England is exploded, says the "Australasian." Positano, Eudorus, Almissa, Sea Prince, Sir Foote and others have broken up that notion in Australia; while Newhaven, The Grafter, Merman, Maluma, Georgic, Paris, Australian Star and a few more from this country have done pretty well in England. England will not take our race horses now, because she wants the best and they cannot be got at the brices maid for Merman, Newhaven and The Grafter. For Wakeful 4,000 guineas was offered and refused, Whether breeders of yearlings will suffer through the demand for the English horse remains to be seen. So far no Australians have taken to buying good yearlings in England; and no breeder in the old country has thought it worth while to mate mares to Australian time for the sake of winning our two and three-year-old races.

BETTING COUP SUCCEEDS AT JUAREZ.

Biggest Plunge of the Meeting Takes Place with Cosgrove, Winner of Handicap, as Medium.

Cosgrove, Winner of Handicap, as Medium.

El Paso, Tex., February 20.—Beautiful weather helped to draw one of the largest crowds of the incetting to Juarez today. Form students were rewarded by the success of four favorites. The Saltillo Handicap, three-quarters of a mile, was contested by a field of four. W. C. Clancy's Cosgrove was returned an easy winner. He was the most heavily suported horse of the present meeting, being backed steadily from 5 to 1 until even money was all that could be obtained against his chances at post time. The reducing of his odds was not done with one rub of the chalk, but took place by degrees. He broke well in his stride and raced Royal Bolly into submission before three-eighths of the journey had been completed. Captain Burns, a good three-year-old that had shown up well in his previous two starts, was giving away weight to the older horses and the task was too great. Besides, he met with a mishap right at the start. Vested Rights is an awkward horse at the gate and has a bad habit of breaking with a sideways motion. He hit Captain Burns and knocked him out of his stride. The colt gamely made up much of the lost ground and finished a fast going second.

Erice McKinney, James Corrigan and James Butler, Jr., the latter having been a guest of the first-named two on the trip to their mines in Mexico, returned here today. Messrs, McKinney and Corrigan have enjoyed themselves thoroughly while here and regret that business interests in Cleveland will call them east tomorrow.

Jockey M. Matthews was suspended for ten days by starter Cassidy for disobedience in the closing race of the day.

EASTERN RACING SCHEDULE IS COMPACT.

No Intermission in New York State from Opening

Date Until Its Close at Saratoga.

New York, February 20.—From the time racing begins this season in this state at Belmont Park on May 26 until the close of the Saratoga meeting August 31 there will be racing every day. This is a cheering sign of the returning prosperity of the turf. Last year when the sport was resumed after a suspension of two years, racing went on for three days each week, except at Saratoga.

It is contemplated to give a more general aspect to the sport during the coming season by holding all the meetings on the different tracks of the associations controlling them. Last year the metropolitan season bezan and ended on the Belmont Park course of the Westchester Racing Association, although when the dates were given out the Metropolitan Jockey Club was scheduled for the Jamaica track. When the short season was well under way it was decided to transfer the Jamaica meeting to Belmont Park and racing continued there unto the theory of the state of the space of the thoroughbreds before going to the Spa will be reverted to, so that with the exception that no dates are scheduled in this district for the fall arising will be almost upon the same plane as before the study of the spa will be almost upon the same plane as before the study of the spa will be almost upon the same plane as before the study of the spa will be almost upon the same plane as before the spart was interrupted.

The full schedule means more horses and higher class racing than that which prevailed last season. The full schedule in this district for the fall arising will be almost upon the same plane as before the spart was interrupted.

The full schedule in this district for the fall aring the spart was minerupted.

The full schedule in this district for the fall aring the spart was a spate of fact, racing under the auspices of the Jockey Club is in full swing now and will continue to be until after the Saratoga season. The spart was a spate of fact, racing under the auspices of the Jockey Club to extend its present meeting to Ma

RADIUM AND THE RACE HORSE.

In one of his letters from Nice the Paris correspondent of the London Sportsman said "I have been informed that Lutteur III. owes his wonderful lave not heard particulars of this remarkable cure. But it is certain that M. James Hennessy's champion steeplechaser has returned to the turf apparently as sound as ever, after being a cripple for nearly two years. Trainers will all rejoice if some new treatment has been discovered which will supersede firing and blistering and will restore to a horse his lost powers. When Lutteur III. won at Autenil last month he jumped as perfectly as ever, tucking up his hind legs behind him in his own peculiar fashion, and though the ordeal through which he passed successfully was not a particularly severe one, it showed that Batchelor had got him quite straight again. Of course, it remains to be seen if he will stand the strain of a rigorous preparation, followed by a race over the long and tiring Aintree course, but I believe all connected with the horse expect to see him render again a good account of himself, and I know that he has been backed by some French people without waiting for the weights."

FORMER JOCKEY DIES AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, N. Y., February 20.—Patrick Meaney, who 40 years ago was one of the best steeplechase jockeys in this country, died yesterday. Meaney, who was born in Ireland 65 years ago, became a jockey in that country and was brought to the United States in the early seventies by the late Charles Reed, who was then the owner of the Saratoga race track. After he retired as a jockey he trained thoroughbreds for the late M. F. Nolan, of Albany, and other owners.

THE GRAND NATIONAL STEEPLECHASE.

THE CRAND NATIONAL STEEPLEGHASE.

It seems destined that scare of one sort or an other shall be associated with Sir Charles Asshe ton Smith's horses as far as concerns the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase, and the latest is in connection with Irish Mail, which is said to have encountered a mishap, which, however, it is hoped will not prove faial to his prospects, and it is at least encouraging that he has accepted, together with last year's winner. Coverteoat, which but recoully was beaten easily in the attempt to concede an ing does not appear to have made much impression on the handleapper, who still separates them by fourteen pounds at Aintree. Mr. Whitaker has a big hand from which to play, having seven under his charge, including Ilis Majesty's Twelfth Laner, while Axie Pin can carry the knowley colors as well as Carrigue. I notice that several events are due to close on Tuesday next for the Grand Military Meeting at Sandown Park, among them the Lancer in the list, as also Captain Paynter's recent purchases, Castlewrixon Lad and Finnigan, though the first named appears to have a fine chance for the National Hunt Steeplechase at Cheltenham. The Royston contingent is completed by the old stagers, Rory o'Moore, Lord Rivers, Great Cross, and the smart young horse Hugomart, by Jaquemart out of Miss Hugo, that won four of six races in Ireland Wilkinstown and Castlewrixon Lad, Frank Hartigan's lot is reduced to a couple in Bloodstone and Jacobus, and Mr. Ussher is similarly placed with Eallyhackle and Diplomatist, of which the former is pretty sure to be the Simon Pure, as it is a poor advertisement for Mr. N. B. Davis's nine-year-old to be let off with the minimum impost. Of Mr. Arthur Gordon's patr Courrefue II. has a far greater reputation than Fearless VII., but would, I faner, and the provided the provided that the provided to the provided to the provided to the letter of which the last-named is a young horse of great possibilities, a line bold leaper with good winning form to his credit this season, as Winner—Br. g. by Woolsthorpe—Explonage (trained by G. W. Langdon).

Weht to post at 3:54. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. CHARLESTONIAN, showing decided improvement, raced in close pursuit of the pacemakers to the stretch turn, where he made a wide turn, but came fast it the last eighth and, having easily disposed of the tiring leader, won going away. DEPOSIT set a good pace and finished gamely, but tired and swerved over to the inside on the stretch turn. INDOLENCE was a forward contender all the way. OLD BEN ran a bad race and could never get up. IVAN GARDNER closed a gap and finished well.
Overweights—Charlestonian, 3 pounds; Indolence, 1½; Ivan Gardner, 1; Polly H., 3.

DAYS FREE

When I advertised that if my $10 GUARANTEED SPECIAL, which goes Tuesday, Feb, 24, did not win at better than 5 to 1 (not run second or third) I would give the balance of Charleston (including ALL specials) FREE, I didn't know they were going to extend the meeting.

$10 SPECIAL WITHDRAWN.

To show that I KNOW that I have something EXTRA—the offer still goes. On account of track conditions, however, the special is withdrawn today, to GO Tuesday, February 24.

SPECIAL: In order to prevent LEAKS this borse, which must win at 5 to 1 or better, will not be sent out of my office until 12 o'clock noon Tuesday, Feb. 24. Furthermore, it will NOT appear in my regular newspaper selections. Here is a rare chance. Rush your subscription—NOW.
